PASTOR'S PONDERINGS

In the Peanuts comic strip, Charles Schulz did a series of strips in which Snoopy was so caught up in the beauty of the world that he just had to dance. In the midst of it, Lucy – ever the fussbudget – criticized him. How could he dance with so much trouble in the world? Snoopy paid her no mind but just went on dancing. Finally, after Lucy had offered her criticism, Snoopy stopped and sat down. Lucy said, “I’m glad you finally came to your senses.” After she walked away, Snoopy said, “It wasn’t that. I stopped dancing because my feet hurt.”

There is a little bit of Lucy in each one of us. Sometimes life weighs us down. It is easy to see the problems and struggles of life. It is easy to focus on the things that are wrong. But sometimes we need to be Snoopy. How often do we take time to recognize the blessings? How often are we so caught up in the beauty of the world that we just have to dance – or sing or laugh or whatever we do to express our joy?

This week we celebrate Thanksgiving. There are great rituals associated with this holiday. They involve eating so much that we fall asleep on the sofa while watching football. But let us not forget what this holiday is truly all about. This is our opportunity to give thanks to God for all His blessings. Giving thanks is not a way to appease God as though we were worried that He might get mad if we forgot Him. It is rather a way of accepting His gifts for what they are, signs of His love. By being grateful, we see His love in every moment of our lives. In that way, we take a cue from one of the Prefaces that we use for the Eucharistic Prayer for weekday masses: “For although you have no need of our praise, yet our thanksgiving is itself your gift, since our praises add nothing to your greatness but profit us for salvation.”

In my own prayer, I sometimes use a rather silly image to help me recognize how important gratitude is. I imagine trying to thank God for every gift we have received. I would start with each breath I take: “Thank you for that one, and for that one, and there’s another one.” And in the midst of it, I would begin to notice each beat of my heart. In fact, I would get so caught up in thanking God for those basic signs that I would never be able to move, and I would thus miss the opportunity to thank Him for every blade of grass and every ray of sunshine. The serious lesson I draw from that image is that we are so surrounded by God’s gifts that we cannot possibly thank Him sufficiently. But in trying to do so, we move from Lucy to Snoopy. We keep our difficulties in perspective to see that, above all and in spite of anything else we might face, God’s love and protection are with us.

For me, I will be celebrating Thanksgiving with my sister in Virginia. I will be gone this whole week, but please know that I will be keeping all St. Malachy parishioners in my prayers in a special way, for the opportunity to serve this parish is one of the gifts for which I am most grateful. So happy Thanksgiving, everybody. And if you take this holiday seriously, then be like Snoopy and dance until your feet hurt.

BE AN ANGEL FOR CHRISTMAS

As Christmas rapidly approaches, there are still many in our community who may not have a Merry Christmas due to financial problems. We can make a difference. Please take an angel from the Angel Trees in the church vestibule, purchase the appropriate gift, wrap it and return the gift, with the angel securely attached. Cash donations can be placed in an envelope marked Angel Tree Gifts which will be used to purchase food certificates and gifts. We ask only new items be donated. Also there is a box near the Angel Trees for a donation for new unwrapped toys. Please return all donated gifts by Sunday, Dec. 3.

Pink Yarns - needy children

Blue Yarns - senior citizens

Green Yarns - families in need

Red Yarns - residents of Allegheny Valley School

As you select a gift please remember to pray for that person and thank God for all your blessings, especially His Son. Thank you!

CATHOLIC SCRIPTURE STUDY

Catholic Scripture Study will be off on Friday, November 24 and December 8. Also due to the upcoming inclement weather during winter months, Saint Malachy’s Adult Catholic Scripture Study will have a temporary break. We will be off starting Friday, December 22 and will resume again in Spring. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for your special dedication and devotion to the Word! God bless and keep you!

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS

Begin your Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 23, by giving thanks to God for all your many blessings by coming to the 9:00 a.m. Mass. The celebrant will be Father Michael Maranowski. Please bring a non-perishable food item for those in need. Our St. Vincent de Paul Society will distribute these items to the needy just in time for Christmas.

COME AND MAKE CHRISTMAS CARDS

Families are needed to make Christmas cards for our service men and women and shut-in members of our parish. Please join us on Thursday, November 30 at 6:30 p.m. in Father Weirauch Hall. We will provide Christmas card making materials and pre-printed cards to use or you can bring your own supplies. This is a great way to wish our service members and shut-in members a Merry Christmas.

ST. MALACHY'S ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY ANNUAL REPORT

FISCAL YEAR ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2017

Total receipts	$15,560.71
Total disbursements	$18,385.10
Net deficit for the year	$ 2,824.39

St. Malachy's St. Vincent de Paul Society provided aid totaling approximately $18,000 to 144 people in our local area over the past fiscal year. The aid consisted of food, clothing, rent, utility payments, and other direct assistance. We also provided post-secondary tuition assistance to qualified students. All of this was made possible by your generous contributions to the poor boxes in the back of the church, by your St. Vincent de Paul envelopes, by the Thanksgiving Day Mass collection, by St. Malachy PTG scrip program, by the St. Malachy Youth Group, by donations to our clothing bin behind the church and to our store in Coraopolis, by some clients anonymously reimbursing us for help in the past, and by many other very thoughtful donations. Without all of this vital help, many needy families and individuals in our local area would not be served. Thank you all so much for your caring support. Happy Thanksgiving!

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

Don't Bury Your Talents - No

one should be surprised that the master in today's Gospel chastises the servant who returns his talent without gaining any interest on it. We all are happy to receive a return on our investments. What do we do with the gifts and talents that God invests in us as His beloved sons and daughters? How do we make a return to Him and others in love by the things we say and do? In support of the On Mission for The Church Alive! Initiative we can't bury our talents in the sand. Instead, each of us as followers of Christ are called to look for ways to share our gifts with others through the Church. Gifts of service, teaching, relationships and expertise, among others, all work to build up the Kingdom of God and allow it to flourish in our communities. Discern the gifts that God has given you. Talk to your pastor about ways you can share your talents with the Church. Look for unmet needs around you and offer ideas about how they can be fulfilled. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.

FIRST GRADE NEWS

First grade has been having a lot of fun with something new to their classroom called mystery readers. The class has someone come in and the students get three clues and have to guess who they are. They get to bring any book in to read and sometimes they even bring in treats. Most of the time they are a parent, and they are pretty good at surprising them. One of our classroom Mom's came in dressed as Pete the Car, brought an ice cream treat, and taught the whole class how to do the cool cat boogie!

With Thanksgiving quickly approaching the first graders are also talking a lot about what we are thankful for they made a beautiful turkey on our door and decorated the feathers with a few things they are most thankful for. They named God, Father H, Mrs. Millitzer, their families, their classmates, police officers, our school and our church. The first graders at SMS wish you all a blessed Thanksgiving season!

CHRIST THE KING

On Sunday, November 26, our parish will celebrate the Feast of Christ the King with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament following the 11:00 a.m. Mass and at 3:00 p.m. there will be prayers and Benediction. Each family in the parish is invited to attend.
