ST. MALACHY PRAY FOR US!

REMEMBER ST. MALACHY IN YOUR WILL!

FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR
“Be Not Discouraged”

Since October 15, many of you have written of your concerns for the future. At Holy Trinity, people harbor concerns for how the new RockKenRo grouping might affect their cherished faith formation programs for children, youth, and young adults. Folks at St. Malachy parish have expressed regret over changes in the daily Mass schedule and in the scheduling of liturgical ministers. Parishioners at St. John of God speak with some worry for the future of one or another of their two churches. I thank those who express their concerns to me and to those who advise me. I ask you to continue to make your thoughts known.

At the same time, however, I ask you to speak calmly and judiciously. A few seem to imagine that by exaggerating perceived threats or offenses, they are likelier to win what they seek. Thus a (fictional) complaint, “It’s outrageous how Fr. Dave parts his hair! Sloppy hairstyling corrodes our Catholic culture! Especially in this time of scandal, Fr. Dave should be presenting himself as a good example for children and adults. When so many are leaving the Church, you’d best pay attention to complaints from me, because I’m a true hero of faith and morality for others.”

Maybe that’s how it works in worldly politics, but it shouldn’t be that way in the Church. An exaggeration is tantamount to a false accusation, denounced in today’s Gospel by John the Baptist. Contrast such a complaint with Saint Paul’s instruction to the Church at Philippi, “Your kindness should be known to all. The Lord is near. Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.”

Perhaps some anxiety at loose in RockKenRo stems from fear of changes to come, or fear of losing a treasured past. These fears are understandable, and we should be patient with those who are afraid. But we do well to consider instead the future God has in store for us. Even in a time of suffering, the prophet Zephaniah could exhort his people, “Fear not, O Zion, be not discouraged!” Likewise, we should trust the Lord’s plan for our future more than we cling to our own plans from months or years past. So “make your requests known,” but do so from a posture of prayer and trust. Look for what is good, listen for what is true, and sustain your thanksgiving for these.

Elsewhere in this bulletin you’ll see a page entitled “Diocesan Group 330 [RockKenRo] Church Alive Campaign.” This is a summary of the three parishes’ status in Our Campaign for The Church Alive!, rounded to the nearest $100,000. The main point is that Holy Trinity still holds some leftover campaign funds, so these must be spent on the case statement—that is, the purposes for which the money was originally raised. So that’s what will happen.

—Fr. Dave

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

Rejoice in the Lord Always - The Third Sunday of Advent is a bit different than the others. While violet has been the color we are used to the past few weeks, this week the candle and the vestments are a rose color. These changes signify an increased joy in our hearts on this Sunday which we call Gaudete, which means "rejoice!" Our joy is increased because we know that our Savior is near, Emmanuel, God is with us. And, yet, a bit of anxiety may also creep in. We may be asking ourselves, "are we ready?" "What must we still do?" This is what those in today's Gospel were asking John the Baptist. His response? Be generous. Be honest. Don't cheat others. As Christmas draws ever nearer, there may be lots of things that distract us from what the Lord truly desires of us this time of year. God wants us to rejoice today, and all days, in freedom of heart so that we may share our gifts and proclaim the good news of God dwelling among us and in us. These lessons can also serve us well as we journey On Mission for The Church Alive! and recognize God at work in the hearts of sisters and brother in faith. Rejoice! The Lord is near! Let the peace of God guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. To learn more and to stay informed visit onmissionchurchalive.org.

OPLATKI

The Christmas wafer honors a custom which is many centuries old. It is sometimes referred to as the Bread of Angels. Our Lord Jesus was born in Bethlehem which means House of Bread. Jesus Christ is the Bread of Life. By breaking and sharing the Christmas Wafer, prayers for health and happiness are offered for the family as well as prayer for unity. Oplatki is available in the narthex of the church or the parish office for $2.00 an envelope.

ADORERS NEEDED

On the third Tuesday of each month from 1-6:30 p.m. there is Adoration at St. Malachy. We are in desperate need of regular adorers who will take a 1/2 hour or 1 hour time slot each month to spend time with Our Lord. Please call Kathleen at 412-875-2337 for details and to sign up.

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH MINISTRY NEWS

Teens are invited to go on an "Advent Adventure" on Friday, December 21. We will meet at the HT Ministry Center at 6:00 p.m. and then travel downtown to see the Pittsburgh Creche. After that we will head over to the PPG Rink to ice skate. Rink admission is $10 and skate rental is $4. A completed permission form is required for this activity. Forms are available in the back of the church or can be downloaded here: stmalachypgh.org/youthministries.htm. Sign up deadline is December 19. To sign up or get more information please contact Mr. Swank at 412-771-7480 or swankymca@gmail.com.

The Youth Leaders from Saint Malachy, Saint John of God, and Holy Trinity are planning "ROCKENRO" Youth Group activities for the winter and spring. So far some of the suggested activities are skiing, bowling, laser tag, and karaoke night. All teens in grades 9-12 are encouraged to submit their ideas. What activities would you like to attend? Just email Mr. Swank at swankymca@gmail.com so we can add your ideas to the list!

MARCH FOR LIFE

Join us on this 46th anniversary of the Supreme Court's Roe vs. Wade decision. We will petition Congress and the President to protect the right to life of every born and pre-born human being.

Schedule: 6:00 am Lenzer 55 seat bus departs from Holy Trinity - Robinson Twp parking lot (5:45 am arrival)

11:00 am Arrive at Basilica of Immaculate Conception. Attend Mass with option to stay at Basilica for afternoon.

Noon March to Capitol and Supreme Court

3:30 pm Meet at Grand Central Station to board bus. Sandwiches and drinks provided on way home. Bus returns by 10:00 pm.

For bus reservations and/or further information, call Helen Stamatakis at 412-788-1974 or Sharon Graham at 773-972-6657. Adults $40, Students $20. (Cost includes $3 metro tickets and $9 for dinner on bus. Please let us know if you prefer beef, chicken or tuna sandwich). Checks made out to Holy Trinity right to Life. SCHOOL NEWS

The students continue their Advent journey "Road to Bethlehem, Follow the Star" this week. We hope all of you have placed your name or intention in our gift box in the back of the church by the tree. We pray for all of these intentions at our school Mass on Thursday.

Our last week before Christmas break will be anything but quiet! The 3rd-8th grades will be going on field trips to the Aviary or RMU on Tuesday. Office Phil will visit grades K-4 on Wednesday. We will attend Mass on Thursday and end our week with a Pajama day and movies to celebrate the beginning of Winter.

Congratulations to our Monday night football pool winners: Julie Schweinberg and James Nagel.

ATTENTION ALL EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS, LECTORS AND ALTAR SERVERS

Steve Swank will be doing the new schedule for our ministries beginning in 2019. Please fill out a new preference sheet and return it to Steve via email or the parish office as soon as possible. The preference sheets are available in the sacristy. Thank you for your help.

CARING HEIGHTS

Thank you for all of the wonderful donations you have made in the past for the Caring Heights Bingo. Gloria Sabat and the residents are extremely grateful for all of the donations. Please continue to help Gloria bring enjoyment to the residents by dropping off your small items, particularly jewelry, small to medium sized stuffed animals, and packaged candy/snacks. Please use the box designated in the narthex of the church.

LUCKY LOTTERY

Lucky Lottery tickets are available for purchase at the Scrip table after Mass. These tickets are $25, and are valid from January 1, 2019 through June 30, 2019, based on the PA Daily number evening drawing. These make great Christmas gifts!
